Living with a family member with a disability (child or adult) can have profound effects on the entire family—parents, siblings, and extended family members.

Jay Nolan Community Services welcomes all family members to join us for Building Healthier and Happier Family Relationships Training. Based on Mandt System, it's exactly what we train each and every JNCS Employee (required yearly) to help staff develop and maintain the trusted and healthy workplace relationships needed for each individual here to achieve their goals, thrive and be as successful as possible.

Parents are also invited meet some experts and some of JNCS' success stories:

Meet Professionals

Special Needs Trust Expert
California ABLE Act Expert

Meet Phenomenal People

Some of JNCS' Prolific Artists and business owners

All Families invited Saturday, June 29, From 10:00am to 12:00pm
